

dwell

Sneak Peek: Auberge Spa at Auberge Beach Residences & Spa Fort Lauderdale

Nestled along an iconic stretch of pristine Atlantic Ocean shoreline and managed by an award-winning spa resort operator, the Auberge Spa at Auberge Beach Residences & Spa Fort Lauderdale is primed to become Fort Lauderdale's ultimate relaxation destination.

Learn more about Auberge Beach Residences & Spa Fort Lauderdale at www.aubergebeach.com.

Designed by Tracy Lee, Owner, TLEE Spas, Auberge Spa at Auberge Beach Residences will feature a range of indoor/outdoor treatment areas designed to be illuminated by natural light and instill a sense of tranquility.

The 10,000 square foot Spa at Auberge Beach Residences Fort Lauderdale incorporates the influences of sea, sound, salt and sand.

The Spa at Auberge Beach Residences will feature a Purification Circuit, full-service salon, four massage rooms, two skincare rooms, a specialty massage room with sand bath table, body treatment room, couples suite with soaking tub, plunge pool and sound lounge area.

The Spa at Auberge Beach will also be accompanied by two outdoor treatment cabanas and landscape garden areas, along with a thoughtfully curated boutique.

The Spa at Auberge Beach Residences Fort Lauderdale will be a one-stop wellness and beauty destination for residents and guests alike, with offerings ranging from a full-service salon, purification circuits and unique boutique experience.

Opening in the first quarter of 2018, Auberge Beach residents will enjoy the benefits of priority access to a host of treatments, preferred appointments and pricing, as well as additional exclusive offerings.