

THE REAL DEAL

SOUTH FLORIDA REAL ESTATE NEWS

Related, Shoma host grand opening of CityPlace Doral: PHOTOS

Jorge Perez, Steve Patterson, Masoud Shojaee and Bernardo Fort-Brescia among hosts
March 28, 2017 12:45PM

Armando Arana, Steve Patterson, Juan Carlos Bermudez, Jorge Pérez and Jose Pepe Díaz (Credit: World Red Eye)

Mario Reyes and the Gipsy Kings family welcomed hundreds of guests to the grand opening of CityPlace Doral earlier this month.

The Related Group and Shoma Group cut the ribbon to the mixed-use project at 8300 Northwest 36th Street in Doral. The development includes 40 retail, restaurant and entertainment tenants, with Brimstone Woodfire Grill, BurgerFi, Cabo Flats Cantina & Tequila Bar, the 550-seat CinéBistro, Cooper's Hawk Winery & Restaurant, Le Macaron, Rusty Bucket Restaurant and Tavern, Salsa Fiesta Grill, Seta Apparel and Sloan's Ice Cream, already open.

Bernardo Fort-Brescia of Arquitectonica designed the $800 million, 55-acre development, which also calls for more than 1,000 housing units, including 150 single-family homes, 700 rental apartments and 320 condos. The project's central section will include a pedestrian mall and a Vegas-style fountain.

CityPlace joins Codina Partners' Downtown Doral and other mixed-use, large-scale communities new to the suburban, sprawling city. – Katherine Kallergis

Tags: cityplace doral, commercial real estate, related group, Shoma Group