

Local Celebrity DJ Laz Set to Emcee with Music by DJ Legato & Kat Lane and Sets by Mariachi Emanuel

By: Community News | April 28, 2017

CityPlace Doral, South Florida's hottest new lifestyle destination, will bring the spirit of Mexico to Doral with its first annual Cinco de Mayo fiesta hosted by famed radio personality, DJ Laz. The energetic event will be the most anticipated Cinco de Mayo celebration in South Florida, with activities geared for all ages. Hundreds are expected to come out to the property to experience music by DJ Legato & Kat Lane, an authentic mariachi band Mariachi Emanuel, as well as interactive entertainers who will encourage guests to take photos, clap and dance along.

Guests will gather around CityPlace Doral's entertainment plaza; dress up in themed Mexican props for the photo booth; and play a selection of games. They can also enjoy the property's spectacular fountain and light shows, which occur every hour.

The cuisine and deals at CityPlace Doral will be unparalleled on Cinco de Mayo. For instance, Cabo Flats—known for its Mexican dishes and tequila bar—offers a lively outdoor/indoor ambiance with drink specials that will include $5 Cabo Margaritas, $4 Coronas and Modelos, $6 Pacifico Beers and $5 shots; along with dining specials like $2 street corn, $3 tacos and empanadas and $5 wings, chips and guacamole. Note that there will be several other venue promotions and restaurant specials taking place.
